

National Collaborative on Education + Health

National Collaborative on Education and Health

Meeting of the National Steering Committee

April 19-20, 2016

RESOLVE – 1255 23rd Street, NW, Suite 275, Washington, DC

MEETING OBJECTIVES

1. Advance the National Collaborative on Education and Health's work on the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).
2. Advise on health and education recommendations for Trust for America's Health's Blueprint for a Healthier America policy report for the incoming Administration and Congress.
3. Hear updates on additional components of the Collaborative's 2016 scope of work: chronic absenteeism, mental health and the free care policy.

DAY ONE AGENDA – APRIL 19, 2016

3:00 p.m. Welcome and Introductions

- Rich Hamburg and Rochelle Davis, Co-Chairs
- Abby Dilley, RESOLVE

3:20 p.m. Overview of the National Collaborative on Education and Health's Work to Date

- Rich Hamburg and Rochelle Davis, Co-Chairs
- Abby Dilley, RESOLVE

3:50 p.m. Supporting Student Health through the Every Student Succeeds Act

- Overview of ESSA
 - Joaquin Tamayo, U.S. Department of Education
- Student health and ESSA
 - Jack Rayburn, Trust for America's Health
 - Alex Mays, Healthy Schools Campaign
- ESSA Panel: Coalition for Community Schools (Mary Kingston Roche, Director of Policy), National Education Association (George Sheridan, Executive Committee Member), American Federation of Teachers (TBD)
 - What do you see as the biggest changes/opportunities in ESSA compared to NCLB?
 - What do you see as the greatest opportunities for supporting student health and healthy school environments within ESSA?
 - How is your organization engaging in the conversation around ESSA implementation?
- Questions and discussion

National Collaborative on Education + Health

- What additional opportunities does ESSA present for supporting student health and healthy school environments?
- Are there issues that should be prioritize over others?
 - For federal advocacy?
 - For state level implementation?

5:20 p.m. The Collaborative's Work on ESSA

- Proposal for the National Collaborative on Education and Health's work on ESSA moving forward
 - Rochelle Davis, Co-chair
- Feedback on proposal and input on key stakeholder organizations to engage through this work
 - Abby Dilley, RESOLVE

6:00 p.m. Adjourn

6:30 p.m. Pre-dinner reception at Restaurant Nora (2132 Florida Ave, NW)

7:15 p.m. Dinner

National Collaborative on Education + Health

MEETING OBJECTIVES

4. Advance the National Collaborative on Education and Health's work on the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).
5. Advise on health and education recommendations for Trust for America's Health's Blueprint for a Healthier America policy report for the incoming Administration and Congress.
6. Hear updates on additional components of the Collaborative's 2016 scope of work: chronic absenteeism, mental health and the free care policy.

DAY TWO AGENDA – APRIL 20, 2016

9:00 a.m. Welcome and Introductions

- Rich Hamburg and Rochelle Davis, Co-Chairs
- Abby Dilley, RESOLVE

9:15 a.m. Health Impact Assessment of ESSA

- Overview of the opportunity to partner with the Health Impact Project to conduct a Health Impact Assessment
 - Jack Rayburn, Trust for America's Health
- Overview of Health Impact Assessments
 - Rebecca Morley, Health Impact Project
 - Ruth Lindberg, Health Impact Project
- Questions and discussion
 - Are there issues in ESSA that steering committee members think are ideal for a Health Impact Assessment?
 - How can Health Impact Assessments be made more useful to the education sector?

10:15 a.m. Blueprint for a Healthier America

- Overview of the Blueprint for a Healthier America and health and education recommendations
 - Rich Hamburg, Co-chair
 - Laura Segal, Trust for America's Health
- Questions

11:00 a.m. Break

11:15 a.m. Blueprint for a Healthier America (continued)

- Discussion and feedback
 - Are there any key concepts that need additional clarification?

National Collaborative on Education + Health

- In what ways might steering committee members use these recommendations in their own organization's work?

12:15 p.m. Lunch

1:00 p.m. Update on the Mental Health Working Group

- Overview of the opportunity and update on the working group
 - Anne DeBiasi, Trust for America's Health

1:15 p.m. Update on the Free Care Policy

- Overview of plans for advancing this issue and the role of the Collaborative moving forward
 - Alex Mays, Healthy Schools Campaign
 - Anne DeBiasi, Trust for America's Health

1:30 p.m. Chronic Absenteeism

- Overview of the National Collaborative on Education and Health's work to date
 - Rochelle Davis, Co-chair
- Every Student, Every Day initiative
 - Joaquin Tamayo, U.S. Department of Education
- Questions and discussion
 - How can the steering committee support this work moving forward?

2:00 p.m. Break

2:15 p.m. Supporting the National Collaborative on Education and Health's Work through Your Organization

- How might you support the National Collaborative on Education and Health's work through your organization?
- What resources, tools and support do you need?
- Is there interest in establishing a subcommittee of the steering committee to explore this issue further?

2:45 p.m. Next Steps

- Review the opportunities for steering committee members to be involved in the National Collaborative on Education and Health's 2016 work.

3:00 p.m. Adjourn